During a video conference on March 4, Shavkat Mirziyoyev gave a number of instructions on student employment. The press secretary of the President Sherzod Asadov said that on March 15 Fergana State University is holding a job fair for students. A press conference is being held with the participation of the Department of Preschool Education, heads of commercial banks operating in the region.

"Students are allowed to work in all government agencies and institutions," he said.

Officials have been tasked with announcing quarterly student competitions for vacancies in state-owned enterprises. Each network leader will need to work systematically with the universities in their field to select potential students.

It was noted that the Central Bank annually announces competitions among 3-4 year students and introduces a system of attracting 60 students to paid internships. At the end of the internship, the best students will be offered a permanent job.

In this case, the governors of the regions, in cooperation with employers, hold job fairs, organize business meetings for students.

Therefore, regional governors and rectors have been instructed to hold job fairs at each university from April 1.

What benefits are being created in terms of youth employment

The issue of youth employment is still one of our most pressing issues. Much is being done today to create new jobs for young people so that they can work honestly and earn money. However, there are also a number of problems in this regard. President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev addressed the issue at the Kamolot congress on June 30.

"The majority of the unemployed in our country are college graduates. For example, in 2016, 477,743 young men and women graduated from colleges, and 438,503 or 91.8% of them were employed. given.

The question is: how accurate are these numbers? If all college graduates are employed, where do unemployed young people come from? Aren't we fooling ourselves by signing four-way contracts with college graduates just in name? In order to provide jobs for young people, we are considering a number of measures, first of all, to develop entrepreneurship among them and create new opportunities in this area.
